

Timely Hints From the Beaverlodge Sub-Station

By W. D. Albright
"IT IS A PLEASURE AS WELL AS A DUTY TO SERVE"

LORD SHAFTESBURY AND SOCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS

Reform in the Treatment of Lunatics

Ashley's first real speech in the House of Commons was on behalf of lunatics and launched him upon a life of reform. After his election to the House he was instrumental in the advancement of human happiness. Before the Reformation there were unknown human beings regarded as mere personal forms of demon possession so that repellent tortures were devised to exorcise these beings, strait jackets, manacles, cruelty and semi-starvation were all accepted as legitimate treatments of possessed souls. In 1755 the first lunatic hospital of Bethlehem in Moordens, London, raving lunatics were exhibited and in all places where not confined and over-crowded squares kept together to grieve the public. He found poisonous food was being sold to the poor, sufficient to make the inmates eatitive were, like wild beasts, gorged into fury.

In 1782, when the reign of terror was raging in France, Dr. Phillips conducted certain experiments in which kindness was the essence of the treatment and the miraculous results were obtained. Men who had been confined for thirty years or more were liberated and became trustees in the institution. The British Parliament, in 1808, passed the Lunatic Protection Act which made it possible. She then declared "that commission saved the British Army."

Health, Sanitation and Recreation

Close associated was the fight for health, sanitation and recreation. Crime, he claimed, was invariably the result of a life of poverty and want and most constant among British institutions was the close association of the criminal with the possessed.

In 1815, when the British army was in France, he organized a campaign to improve the condition of the British army.

Popular Education

While opposing secularization, he was a champion of popular education, though here his course was very much between Scylla and Charybdis.

Men who had been confined for thirty years or more were liberated and became trustees in the institution.

He went right into the institutions, familiarizing himself with the terrible details of brutalization and telling what he saw in speeches that made Parliament take notice. After the second investigation he organized the world's first "ragged school" in 1845 which buried two bills which have been called "The Magna Charta of the Industrial Poor" and "the Magna Charta of the Poor but 'middle-class' though it is." For 57 years he engaged in scriptural labours for inmates and rich were the results. His life was a leading movement of vastly lives, consequences to human progress.

Lodging Houses and Clowns

Unspeakable lodging-houses, conditions of life, and other atrocities, and he again began to investigate the evil personally in close quarters. A certain few before him had received £100,000 for a lodging house 120 feet by 20 feet long, 20 feet wide and 7 feet high, where as many as 100 men had been crowded into a single night with all air space counted, except for their fever patients. It had been of hundreds of raves where men, women and children had been exposed to the elements and the life of lower animals to shame, vermin-ridden, and with sanitation beyond imagination and beyond the imagination of the public.

Such accommodation the inmates had to accommodate were expected to pay and in one instance 31 were counted in three beds.

Shaftesbury and the Prince Consort were the mainstays behind the society for improving the condition of the working classes. After the first year of the result and on a course of time a vast improvement in slum conditions was made. Many people insisted that private speculators were directly to right these wrongs, but Shaftesbury had stout faith in private speculation in the right conditions. In Parliament and out.

The Ten-Hour Bill

In the early days of Shaftesbury's fight against factory oppression, on a trip of inspection he made to Bradford he met many a slaty factory crimp who bodies were gathered to request to meet him. They stood or squatted outside in the rain, holding the letters of the alphabet * * * the effects of prolonged tell on the tender frames of children at early ages."

How did they do it?

The answer is, by their monopoly of financial credit.

For the first assessment of Canada previous to the creation of a central bank by the first governor and I believe, also, the deputy Governor appointed him, that they were to take that monopoly of the financial control away from the private interests.

Such action in the interests of children still lingers.

The ownership of the results of this toll has simply changed hands during this long session, from the first capitalist to another capitalist who has been granted by others. Hence we have not had a depression since the creation of the Central Bank.

Control of greater importance than ownership, of the car and individual owns the car but I have un-disputed control at the wheel. I go where I want to go. If I own the car and no control, no goes where he wants to go. The immovable shareholders of the Central Bank, any more than the scattered shareholders of the present banks control them. The control of the present bank has been exercised by the president and general manager, etc. The control of the Central Bank of Canada was taken away from the present shareholders of Canada by virtue of the fact that people in Grande Prairie own shares in it.

Interesting News From Sexsmith

Vol. III No. 30 By R. A. MACLEOD

January 15, 1935

How dear to our heart is the steady subscriber.

Who pays in advance at the birth of each year.

Who lays down the money and does it quite gladly.

And sits round the office a halo of cheer.

He never says "Stop it." "I cannot afford it."

Not getting more papers now than I can read.

But always says "Send it the family likes it."

In fact we all think it is a real house-hold need."

How welcome he is when he steps in.

How it makes our heart throb, how he makes our heart dance!

We outwardly think him, we inwardly think him.

That steady subscriber who pays in advance.

The staff will now come forward and get a little closer harmony on the above, to the tune of "The Old Oaken Bucket."

GONE TO HOTELKEEPERS' CONVENTION AT CALGARY.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Waddell left on last Friday to return for Calgary, where the annual convention of the Alberta Hotel Keepers Association is being held. Hank is the man to represent this part of the province, having been elected director for the Peace River district at the last convention. They expect to be away for ten days or two weeks.

DOES A LITTLE FANCY NEEDLE THREADING.

Some time ago we read in the Chinese Examiner that a woman from Texas has threaded an ordinary needle with 172 threads. No. 60, also saw in the Edmonton Journal that a woman from India had threaded 1000 threads into a single needle. Now this seemed almost unbelievable until last week, when Mr. Wm. J. Edwards, manager of the Royal Bank office and showed us a darning needle of medium size, threaded with 231 threads. No. 40. Can anyone beat this record? Anyone doing this can be rewarded by calling on Mr. Edwards.

TWO TEAMS OF G. P. HOCKEY PLAYERS PAID DOWN A VISIT.

Last Saturday afternoon the young men of the Grande Prairie hockey fraternity paid a visit to Sexsmith with two teams of little fellows, and some not so little. The game between the two teams ended in a draw at the end of full time. They played overtime, but neither side was able to score so decided to call it a day. The boys of Sexsmith are beginning to think about girls, tried conclusions, with a victory for Sexsmith, the score being 6 to 2.

DEBOLT ITEMS.

ENTERTAINED B. B. CLUB.

DEBOLT, Jan. 9.—Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Gunble were guests of the B. B. Club at the McKinley home on last Tuesday afternoon. Twenty members were present besides seven men. The men played cards and the ladies spent the time piecing a quilt. A very delicious meal which was served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Aitkenoff.

A party was given to a bunch of young folks at the McArthur home on Saturday evening.

A few young folks met at the Ross home on Wednesday evening to practice a dialogue and play cards afterwards.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McArthur were guests at the L. Roe home on last Sunday.

Anita Peterson is visiting at the Gunble home in Grande Prairie this week.

Betty Gow, nurse in the home of George and Elizabeth Lindbergh at the time of the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby, is pictured as she arrived in New York from Scotland. Mrs. Gow was a witness in the trial of Bruno Hauptmann on charges of kidnapping and murdering the baby.

The two pictures above, which arrived in Canada in the same mail, show ceremonies in which the heads of two nations took prominent parts. At the left, Prince Paul, Regent of Yugoslavia, opens the King Alexander I suspension bridge, built across the Save to connect Belgrade and Zemun. The assistance king was to have performed the opening ceremony. At the right, the King of Bulgaria opens the new Bulgarian University buildings in Sofia and on his left is the Queen.

After Toronto's team got half of the Carson-Emms combination, "Happy" was released by Detroit Red Wings. He was immediately picked up by the Maple Leafers, and the crowd still think they got the best of the deal. When "Happy" puts on a back-checking barrage the opposing right wingers begin to feel sad.

is the plugging type of puck chaser who is blessed with an abundance of fortitude. When the Boston Bruins secured him from Toronto, Maple Leafs they figured they had got a real find. But much to their chagrin he was discovered in Fort William and it is the irony of fate that he was responsible for the Bruins beating the Leafs in the four games of the Boston-Toronto play-off series when he scored two goals which tied up the series.

Arthur Henderson, president of the League of Nations disarmament committee, has been awarded the Nobel peace prize.

The radio station of the General Electric Company stated that a radio-gram from Little America said the Hyrd Antarctic expedition intends to leave for New Zealand and New York the last week in January, 1935.

The Earl of Willingdon, Vice-roy of India, will travel to New Zealand to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the King's accession to the throne. The proceeds will be devoted to the Indian Red Cross Society and kindred organizations.

Little Shirley Temple, enchanting film star, leaves 1934 and goes into 1935 with a crash—through the calendar. The passing year was very good to Shirley, and she hopes 1935 will be better. In that wish, she obviously isn't alone.

The first enthronement for 21 years took place at the temple of the Grand Lodge of the United States. Mrs. Seton-Challen was installed as the Grand Master of the Honourable Fraternity of Ancient Freemasons, the only Masonic order organized and run by women. Mrs. Seton-Challen (centre) is the new Grand Master, standing with Mrs. Mary Bowden, Vice-Grand Master, Mrs. Bowden Reid, the first "G.-M." nearly 22 years ago. On the extreme left of the picture is Mrs. Florence Hicks, Deputy Grand Master.

EDMONTON LIVE STOCK

EDMONTON, Jan. 17.—All offerings of good cattle were moving quite rapidly and under good trading. Prices on the whole were fairly good and unchanged. Hogs were firm. Carload lots were selling at $7.15 for bacon hogs; trucked-in bacon $7.00.

BEZANSON NEWS

BEZANSON, Jan. 16.—The weather since Christmas has been, and still is, rather severe; but January is almost always cold, and if we have to have cold weather, this is the best time for it.

Schools in the district have all reopened after the holidays, with reduced attendance owing to the cold weather.

Miss Irene Johnston is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnston.

SCHOOL MEETING GOOD ONE

The annual meeting of the Bezanson school was held at the schoolhouse on Saturday, January 12. Mr. G. W. Ferrie was re-elected by acclamation, president. A 90 per cent vote was cast in favor of the long-disputed Saar territory to Germany. The vote cast for the Saar territory was 47,000, and for France, 2,000.

All that now remains is official recognition of the Saar territory, with its billions of tons of coal, to the third Reich by the Council of the League of Nations.

This place promptly and without any question of diving the territory, as in no single district was the anti-German vote substantial.
